

Review of: "Unveiling the Hidden Harvest: A Study on the Influence of House Churches on New Testament Evangelism"

Mathias Chukwudi Isiani¹

¹ University of Nigeria

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

While the study is very profound and adds to the existing knowledge of religion in Africa, the author should state early the purpose of the paper by defining what he meant by evangelism. The word is generic. In what context is the author adopting the word? The author(s) should critically read all the works of Ogbu Kalu and Felix Ekechi for better knowledge of religious studies. "Christian Missions in Nigeria, 1841 - 1891" by J.F. Ajayi is a must-read for the author(s). When these works are added to the body of the work, the editor can go ahead with the publication.