

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Stratum Lucidum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Stratum Lucidum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33629.

A translucent layer of the epidermis comprising dead, clear cells located between the stratum corneum and the stratum granulosum; it is only found in areas of thick skin, including the palms of the hand and the soles of the feet.