

Review of: "The Effects of Polypropylene Wastes on the Compressive Strength of Grade 25 Concrete"

Somkiat Maithomklang

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This research is an intriguing study in the realm of environmental and innovative technologies for the production of cleaner waste materials. The authors established a good and valid proposition for producing eco-friendly concrete.