

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Continuum belief

James Morris¹

¹ London South Bank University

Belief of (or by) a person that a construct such as an illness or issue exists on a continuum across a population, rather than amongst distinct groups. For example, alcohol use disorders may exist on a continuum of severity across the population, counter to the binary notion of alcoholics and non-alcoholics.