

Review of: "Modelling and Mapping of Aboveground Carbon of Oluwa Forest Reserve Using LandSat 8 TM and Forest Inventory Data"

Moh. Dede¹

¹ Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Dear authors,

I have some recommendations for you below:

- The sample size (20 plots) seems relatively small for such a large forest reserve. A larger sample might improve the model's robustness.
- The paper could benefit from more discussion on the limitations of the method and potential sources of error.
- A comparison with other tropical forest carbon estimates from different regions would provide more context for the results.