Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The methodology for the removal of nodes from the structure needs to be clarified. It should be justified in terms of suitable parameters.
2. Language as well as organization of the thesis needs to be revised.
3. Discussion and analysis portions need to be revised.
4. The analytical discussions are inadequate to support your claim.
5. The conclusion needs to be crisp and clearly confined to the outcome of your proposal.
