

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Immunoturbidimetry

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Immunoturbidimetry. NCI Thesaurus. Code C106536.

A method that measures the absorbance of light from a sample which is used for quantifying an amount of analyte based on the level of turbidity produced by the formation and precipitation of an immune complex containing the analyte.