Dears,

The paper has well-designed research methods, appropriate statistical analysis, and a relatively good interpretation of the results.

Please be sure to use only keywords according to medical subject headings (Mesh words) for better indexing.

I suggest you add a table with the list of abbreviations used in the text.

I suggest you implement the abstract in order to make it more understandable to readers.

The introduction should be expanded.

The conclusion is in accordance with the objectives of the research, its results and their interpretation, as well as the relevant literature.
