

Review of: "Refrigerant Selection in Air Conditioning Systems Considering Thermodynamic, Environmental, and Economic Performance Using the BHARAT-II Multi-Attribute Decision-Making Method"

Freddie L. Inambao<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> University of KwaZulu-Natal

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare. I have no relevant potential interest to declare

The abstract has summarized the context, intent, methods, findings, and conclusions of the paper.

The introduction is detailed, and the citations reflect the study carried out.

The methodology is acceptable and well written.

The discussions are up to standard and acceptable.

The conclusions reflect the findings of the work done.

The authors have attended to comments made earlier.

Overall, the work done has improved, i.e., to a good standard.

The article satisfies the conditions set for publication in the Journal.

The article is recommended for journal publication.