1.Conclusion should be extended to include more details regarding the future work and limitations of proposed study. Limitations should be clearly divided into practical and theoretical.

The abstract and conclusion need to be improved. The abstract must be a concise yet comprehensive reflection of what is in your paper. Please modify the abstract according to "motivation, description, results and conclusion" parts. I suggest extending the conclusions section to focus on the results you get, the method you propose, and their significance.

3.What is the motivation of the proposed method? The details of motivation and innovations are important for potential readers and journals. Please add this detailed description in the last paragraph in section I
