

Review of: "The Effects of Polypropylene Wastes on the Compressive Strength of Grade 25 Concrete"

Taha A. El-Sayed¹

¹ Benha University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This paper is of insufficient novelty to be considered for publication in the Qeios journal. This manuscript is a case study rather than a research paper and does not reach the scientific level we expect from submitted manuscripts. In particular, I am missing the new research question and the depth of investigation that we expect from all submissions to the Qeios journal.