

Review of: "Long COVID Syndrome: A Systematic Review of Persistent Symptoms Post-Pandemic"

Noé Alvarado-Vásquez<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Instituto Nacional de Enfermedades Respiratorias

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The manuscript, "Long COVID Syndrome: A Systematic Review of Persistent Symptoms Post-Pandemic," is an interesting work. However, I consider it necessary to rewrite the Main Insights section, since as presented, it seems only a compilation of the data shown by the authors of the corresponding work. Furthermore, I consider that the discussion should be reanalyzed; in my opinion, the way it is presented does not highlight the importance of this work.