

Review of: "The Effects of Polypropylene Wastes on the Compressive Strength of Grade 25 Concrete"

Abdul Ghani¹

¹ Tongji University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

In my point of view, the study is looking good, but I can't recommend something whose results are below the reference. We can recommend it for further improvements. The title is specific to compressive strength, while this study also discusses other parameters like water absorption, slump, etc.