

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Apocrine Breast Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Apocrine Breast Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5141.

An adenocarcinoma of the breast characterized by the presence of two intermingled cellular components: cells with abundant granular, eosinophilic cytoplasm, and cells with abundant cytoplasm containing fine empty vacuoles.